FESTIVAL FACT SHEET

ABOUT THE FESTIVAL

Over-the-Rhine International Film Festival brings people together to celebrate diversity, disability, and difference through new and independent film and art. We showcase the stories, lives and art of people with disabilities and other differences through events that engage and connect audiences.

ABOUT LADD

The agency that oversees the festival is LADD inc, a Cincinnati-based non-profit with 40 years of excellence in serving adults with developmental disabilities through housing and employment options and life-skill training. LADD has a $7 million annual budget, 150 staff and serves 500 people across Hamilton County.

2017 SUCCESS

The 2017 Cincinnati ReelAbilities Film Festival ran March 9th – 12th 2017 at the Duke Energy Center. The four day festival brought film and TV stars, community leaders, film makers, artists, students, and more. To share the lives, art and stories of people who experience disability. Cincinnati ReelAbilities Film Festival was Cincinnati's largest film festival and the expanded festival promises to bring more exciting arts and culture to our community.
